The Auglaize county paper carried a headline across the front page as the first traffic death in 1954 in that county and a column of 20 inches followed describing the accident.

Suffers Broken Back

Jerome's right arm was pinned down by the corner of the trailer and he was on his back, lying in the ditch over which the vehicle was overturned. The fact that Pat's body was on top of Jerome's arm, saved his arm from being cut off by the impact. His back was broken in two places. He also suffered numerous bruises, abrasions and cuts, particularly to 1, 1927 at St. Nicholas, son of Mr. his head and shoulders,. He was taken to the Memorial Hospital at St. Marys which had just been completed last spring.

The brothers were enroute with the Emil DeBacker and Sons Farm Products tractor-trailer, loaded with 16 ton (320 bags) of potatoes, to Greensboro, N. C. They had just acquired the truck in November and this was their first trip that far from home. They had loaded the truck at Pat's farm at Rock and left at 1:30 a. m., Tues-

Jerome fell asleep, and Pat, who was driving, evidently dozed off because he had gradually left the pavement until he was about 30 feet from the bridge. He then swerved to get back to the road, but it was too late.

Pinned Under Trailer

When the tractor-trailer struck the bridge abutment on the left side, it broke off eight feet of the concrete and was so completely demolished that there wasn't a piece of metal two feet wide that could be found. There was no trace of the steering wheel, a man could pick up and pile in a wheel barrow what was left of the tractor.

The trailer vaulted over the bridge and turned upside down over the ditch which is a few feet below the roadway surface. Both men had been thrown out of the cab by the impact and the heavily loaded trailer fell across them, pinning them down.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Koeper, living just west of the bridge, heard the crash and called the highway patrol and ambulance.

Wrecking crews worked for more than an hour to release the two men while the St. Marys fire department stood by ready to go into action should the spilled gasoline ignite. The gas tank of over a hundred gallons had just been filled previous to the accident and

KING COTTON DEBATE

Mother Nature has had most to do with knocking congressional heads together regarding the biggest farm battle between the East and West-cotton quotas.

Last summer, California and the comelately cotton areas of Arizona and New Mexico were at loggerheads with old plantation states of Mississippi, Georgia. and the Southeast. The latter were to have their cotton acreage cut only 25 per cent, while the Far West was in for a 52 per cent cotton reduction.

This meant a loss of about $160,000,000 to the great central valley of California and was almost sure to bring economic setcently, and the cotton-acreage quotas are based on the years 1947-49 and 1951-52. Thus the older cotton states get the pre-a compromise readjustment of these quotas -without success. Congress adjourned. Still no agreement.

But with the opening of congress last week, revised cotton quotas were made the No. 1 item of discussion, and there's now a good prospect of agreement.

Reason: The planting season starts soon If quotas aren't fixed soon, farmers can't curtail. Nature won't wait.

Note-The new cotton bill will increase quotas about 3,000,000 acres. Actually, the motive is politics and nothing else. The increase will ease the political situation all right, especially in the Far West, where Calfornia farmers are raging mad. But Experts believe we will have cotton running out of our ears at the end of 1954.

ON THE MOVE-The population of the United States is increasing, the people on the move from one state to another, and the only certainty no matter where you live is the inevitability of death and taxes The Census Bureau is the basis for population figures showing that only 64.7 per cent of Michigan residents were born in this state. The remainder were foreignborn or moved here from other states.

The ebb and flow of population in the United States has been one of the marvels of civilization. Nowhere else on the globe in the past 150 years have so many people indugled in so much travelingsome of it by necessity, most of it the result of the "itchy foot."

While the people of older countries in the world in the majority stayed close to the community in which they were born (except for the vast numbers who emigrated to America), the Yankees jumped from Maine to California, Michigan to Florida. And the shuffling about is still going strong.

Chinese Pirates Sneak Aboard Ships; Communism Felt In Zoos

NEA Staff Correspondent EN ROUTE FORMOSA Aboard British Steamship Szechuen -(NEA)—The fellow standing at the bar next to you on this ship might be a pirate.

Disguised Chinese pirate gangs often book passage on small vessels, and once on the high seas murder enough of the crew to seize control. Pirated ships are beached on the many lonesome islands in the Straits of Formosa.

Cargo is hauled off in junks and sold in nearby Red China. Passengers with friends or relatives sufficiently interested to pay ransom are held in unfurnished caves for years. Others, like newsmen, are fed to the sharks.

To reduce the threat of passenger pirates, uniformed armed guards roam the deck of the Szechuen on the run between Hong Kong and Keelung (Formosa).

First and second class (where most passengers board) is separated by a steel fence hemstitched with barbed wire and lit up at night like a three-alarm fire. British planes from Hong Kong scoot low checking security for the first half of the journey, then American planes from Formosa take over.

First and second class passengers cannot mix socially and the only deck game is checking your life insurance policy.

He expressed this view in commenting on an article in the Saturday Evening Post which stated that such fee-splitting is commonplace in parts of the East and through much of the Midwest, especially Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

New Officers Of Presbyterian Church Named

At the annual meeting of the congregation and corporation of the First Presbyterian Church, a new slate of officers was elected to replace those whose three year term had expired.

Elected to the Session were Leonard Olson for one year to fill the unexpired term of Nyal Witham, Kryn Bloom for one year, Emil Neumann for two years, Ray Knudson, Lawrence Erickson, Arthur V. Aronson, and Mrs. Earle B. Harris. This is the first time in the history of this congregation that a woman has been elected to serve on the Session, although the practice is common in many Presbyterian churches.

Elected to serve as Deacons were Mrs. Ralph Shiner, Mrs. Rose Luecke, Mrs. Henry Wylie, and Mrs. Clifton Reno. Their terms are all for three years. Elected to the Board of Trustees were George A. Peterson for two years to fill the unexpired term of James Jones, and Mr. Robert Owen, Clarence Moore, Warren Morrison and Harold Brushe for three years each. The church Session reported 526 members, an increase of 13 over last year, and the budget presented by the combined boards of $20,000 for 1954 was adopted.

Suits Are Short Story For Spring

> By GAILE DUGAS NEA Woman's Editor

NEW YORK-(NEA)-The suit story is a short story this spring That's because the suit jacket this year is short and fitted-the one suit silhouette with greatest significance. .

Suits are feminine, cut in lightweight fabrics that can be worn well into the early days of summer. These fabrics are mostly the silk mixtures, thin worsteds, alpacas, chiffon flannels and tweeds that are loosely woven and therefore without the heavy bulk usually associated with tweed.

Though the jacket is shorter, skirts generally are slim, in keeping with the slim and straight silhouette of almost all spring clothes. As for skirt length, it's midcalf but looks shorter because of the narrow look.

Despite the fact that skirts are somewhat shorter, suits have a

At 70. Albert Fratellini is not only the oldest clown in Europe, but he is also the most famous. And he can boast of having been in the circus business 65 years. It was at the turn of the century that Albert, with his brothers, Paul and Francois, started the "musical clown" act which delighted generations of children and their parents in every European capital until the outbreak of the Second World War. When peace came, only one was left-Albert. But the Fratellini tra-has television done for newspaper reading?

survey shows that TV INCREASES it!

For the fourth year in a row the Cunningham & Walsh independent "Videotown" survey shows that television set owners are spending more time with their newspapers than ever before!

It is clear that every medium -including TV, the newcomersimply whets people's appetites for the full story.

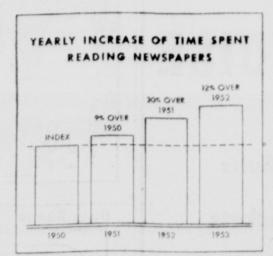

In their newspaper they'll find the whole story about the fight they saw on TV last night . . . about the entertainers they watched . . . the debate they saw ... or the educational program that was so interesting.

No matter what the source of news may be - an angry dictator across the sea, an earthquake in Mexico, a tennis match in Australia, a fire downtown, or a TV program in the living room—it's the newspaper that tells it all.

No wonder people are reading their newspapers more! No wonder advertisers are finding newspapers more productive than ever before!
